HOT TOPICS IN EDUCATION

This feature is intended to highlight some of the “Hot Topics” in Education, as well as materials for recent events, or upcoming holidays. Please let us know your ideas for subjects or materials of interest, and we will try to feature them in future editions of our Newsletter.

United States Presidential Election: The United States presidential election of 2012 is the next presidential election to be held on Tuesday, November 6, 2012 and will be the 57th quadrennial United States presidential election. Check out this secondary level kit:

Project Look Sharp at Ithaca College: Media Construction of Presidential Campaigns: A Document-Based History Kit

Veterans Day: November 11, or Veterans Day, was originally a legal holiday to honor Armistice Day - the end of World War I, which officially took place on November 11, 1918. In 1954, after both World War II and the Korean War, at the urging of the veterans service organizations, the U.S. Congress amended the previous Act by changing "Armistice" to "Veterans." November 11 became a day to honor American veterans of all wars. Check out some of our related materials including:

Tennessee Department of Education: World War II Memorial Learning Activities

Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund: Hometown Heroes: A Service Learning Project; Vietnam: Echoes From the Wall. History, Learning, & Leadership Through the Lens of the Vietnam War. Teacher's Guide

ACCESS OPTIONS

Access to the database is available with user name / password (from any location) or by IP (on campus). Subscribers may choose to have one type of access or both. Usage statistics are sent out on a monthly basis. If a school has both types of access, the statistics will be received individually for each access type.

BROCHURE & POSTER
