Product Description

The Kraus Curriculum Development Library Online, or kcdonline, is a searchable database that provides curriculum information on a variety of subjects covered in PreK-12 and Adult Basic Education. With a growing database of over 7,500 curriculum documents, kcdonline provides a direct link to the curricula you need and contact information on the agencies that issue the curricula.

Benefits of kcdonline include:

- Save time in tracking down the newest curricula and standards
- Access the full text of hundreds of curricula documents, covering all subjects and grade levels
- Identify and retrieve the documents which are most relevant to your project
- Keep current via monthly updates

Methods of Access

- User ID and Password
- IP address verification (example: ##.###..)

For password subscriptions, the KCDL staff will email the user ID and password information to the person signing the subscription agreement, unless otherwise directed by the subscriber.
